Article V – Issues

5.1. Problem with a junior player – If there is a problem with a junior player, the coach will take appropriate disciplinary action against the player. If the issue persists, there will be a coaches' meeting with the player and his/her parent/guardian. If there continues to be a problem, the issue will be handed over to the board for resolution. All Board decisions will be final.

Problem with an adult player – if a problem arises between a coach and an adult player, they need to have a conversation away from the team. If they cannot come to a resolution, they need to invite a board member into the discussion. If there is still conflict, the entire board will be involved, and determine an appropriate course of action. All Board decisions will be final.

5.2. Problems with a parent – If there is a problem with a parent of a junior player, the coach will address directly with the parent. If the issue persists, the issue will be handed over to the board for resolution. All Board decisions will be final.

5.3. Problems with other teams – If there is a problem with another team that escalates past our coach and the other coaches discussing, the coach will advise the board. If it is a DVHL team, the President will address the DVHL. If it is a NESHL team, the President will address NESHL. If it is neither a DVHL nor NESHL team, the coach has the authority to deny play against that opposing team.

5.4 Problem between board members – Board members should address each other in private and away from players and parents regarding any conflicts. Board members are expected to address each other respectfully at all times. If the Board members are unable to find a resolution within 2 weeks, the issue will be brought before the full Board. The conflicting Board members will abstain from any votes regarding the disagreement and will agree to the final decision of the board.

5.5 If a junior player is invited to play with the adult team, their priority is the junior team if there is a scheduling conflict.

Article VI – Modification of the By Laws

6.1 All modifications to the bylaws must be drafted and then sent to all the Board members for further editing and a final agreement which should be confirmed via email or
